Rupert Mock Chosen Pahokee Bank Pres.

In March, 1931, just nine short years after the Bank of Pahoke was founded in 1922, a young Pahokee man went to work in the bookkeeping department of that finan-cial institution. This week nearly thirty years later that same man is president of the bank and his name is familiarly and favorably known to thousands of residents of the Lake Okeechobee Farming Re-gion. He is Rupert Mock.

At the annual stockholders meeting on Tuesday of this week it was necessary for that group to name a bank president to succeed the late bank president to succeed the late Harry M. McIntosh, who passed away suddenly as the result of a heart attack. To the many friends and patrons of the bank, who have taken advantage of its facilities during the past quarter of a cent-ury, there was only one man for the position and that was the man chosen by the stockholders—Rup-ert Mock.

The new president is a conse ative, competent, accommodating and likeable sort of an official who will guide the destinies of the institution through the present sugar booming days with a firm hand that will please the patrons, depos-itors and stockholders of the bank.

Other officers elected: Julius T. loon, vice president; Martha M. McIntosh, assistant vice president;

McIntosh, assistant vice president; E. F. McIlwain, cashier, and F. E. Gillis, assistant cashier. Elected to the board of directors were Mock, Moon, McIlwain, Mrs. McIntosh, Robert L. Earnest and Lewis Friend.

Lewis Friend.

There is a certain amount of distinction in being the president of the oldest bank in Palm Beach county. That is the rightful title belonging to the Bank of Pahokee. During the boom of 1925-28 and the bust of the early 1930's the local bank continued in its conservative manner and came through all adversity with Llying colors when banks were closing on every hand in Palm Beach county and Florida in Paim Beach county and Florida.

This newspaper and its publisher join the thousands of folks in the Glades who commend the stockholders for their wise and timely selection of Rupert Mock as their new president.

New Insurance May Save County Money

Possibility that Palm Beach County could save upwards of $10,000 a year on accident and health insurance on county employes was voiced this week by John Horton, West Palm Beach

Horton told the county commission Monday that it could save money and obtain better service by changing its present insurance plan. A committee from the commission will be named by Chairman Lake Lytal to investigate Horton's

State To Ask Bids On 4.8 Miles US27

The State Road Department will ask for bids on January 25, for four-laning 4.8 miles of US 27 from the Clewiston city limits in Hendry county to Bare Beach in Palm Beach County. Estimated cost per mile is $1,000,000. Two miles of the new road will be in Palm Beach County.

County Commissioner Paul

Rardin said yesterday that he had been informed by the State Road Department that the new four-lane road will parallel the dike around the south shore of Lake Okeechobee. Present plans call for removal of the muck of the muck on the roadway and replacing it with rock dug by a dredge in Lake Okeechobee.

Farmers Urged To Sign ASCS Plan

All farm operators are reminded that the initial signup for the 1962 Agricultural Conservation Program will end on Friday, January 12, 1962. This program is open to all farm operators except those who

The farm operators may sign up at the ASCS Office in the Glades Office Building, Belle Glade, or the ASCS Office at 531 North Military Trail, West Palm Beach.

The Agricultural Conservation Program cost-shares approximately up to 50 percent of the materials to perform the practice. It pays on such items as replanting pastures, fertilizing and seeding pastures, summer and winter cover crops, land leveling and ditching.

All ditching and land leveling practices must be on land that has been in either row crops or pasture for any 2 out of the past 5 years.

Citizens of Pahokee offered an opportunity to better their drainage conditions when a special bond election is held on Friday, January 26, 1962, according to an official of the East Beach Water Control District who commented this week on the upcoming election.

Drainage conditions in Pahokee through the past quarter of a century have been inadequate and at times property has been damaged and in many cases threatened with complete flooding. Officials of the District have worked out a plan whereby the entire drainage dis-trict can be completely revamped and made to render a drainage ser vice that will be satisfactory to all property owners.

A bond issue in the amount of $300,000.00 will be voted on at the special election scheduled for Friday, January 26, and at that time the freeholders will have opportunity to express themselves at the polls. The election will be held in poils. The election will be field in the Pahokee high school gymnas-ium. The City of Pahokee is within the drainage district comprising about 40 percent of its total area. East Beach Water Control District comprises an area of 6,073 acres surrounding the City of Pahokee.

surrounding the City of randoxe.

The District operates under general drainage laws set up by the state legislature and is governed by a three man board elected by the landowners with a meeting held in September of each year.

On the district's board of supervisors are Roy Vandegrift Sr., pres-ident, Carmen Salvatore and H. J. Anderson. John D. Rogers serves as district engineer and secretary The purpose of the proposed bond issue is to provide funds for improving and revamping the water proving and revaming the water-control facilities throughout the entire District. This includes, among many other things, reloca-tion of the pumping plant from its present location, near the city gar-bage dump, to a site just south of the home of H. J. Anderson. ## Junior Orange Bowl Parade Big Hit

CORAL GABLES-The kids took over recently in Coral Gables and staged the best-ever Junior Orange Bowl Parade, the thirteenth edition of the dimpled offshoot of the grownups' Orange Bowl Festival.

Honor of leading the parade this year went to the St. Camillus Fife, Drum and Bugle Corps of Rockaway Beach, New York. The unit farthest from home was the "Gauchos" from Grand Forks, North Dakota, a drum corps of 45 youngsters under 16 years of age.

There were 4,500 pint-size participants in the parade with 42 floats, 19 bands and 27 different floats, 19 bands and 27 different marching groups. Center of attraction was, of course, 12-year-old Bonnie Burkhart, Junior Orange Bowl Queen. In the reviewing stand with the Mayor and city commissioners were guest-of-honor Dr. James W. Parrish of Stetson University, Reviewing Officer Capt. John L. Buckley, and the lovely Orange Bowl Queen Carol Hair plus other dignitaries.

Fla. Banks Double Assets During 10 Yrs.

Florida commercial banks more than doubled their assets during the past decade, the Florida State Chamber of Commerce reported yesterday.

"In June of this year, total assets of Florida banks reached $5.3 billion, a gain of 146 per cent over the 1950 figure. The national increase was 54 per cent. Investments of Florida banks totaled $2.1 billion at midwar. mid-year, double the 1950 figure compared with a 10 per cent gain nationally.

Loans and discounts came to $2 billion in Florida, four times the 1950 total. Loans to commercial and industrial establishments stood at $669.9 million; to individuals at $668 million and on real estate at $439 million this year, each figure being up about three and one half times from the comparable 1950

$2,000,000 Glades-Wide Hospital Is Proposed

half way between Pahokee and Belle Glade has reached the planning stage, and members of the two hospital boards in a joint announcement this week say that such a move would provide for western Palm Beach county, a new, mod-raim beach county, a new, mod-ern hospital centrally logated to serve the entire area.

Under the new proposal approx-imately $2,000,000.00 would be necessary to build and equip a thor-oughly modern and up-to-date facility, with 45 percent of that amount coming from a federal amount coming from a federal man board, stepped up from his grant and the remaining amount to be raised through local efforts. In approving the idea the Florida Development Commissioner Ben Sundy of Delray Reports. velopment Commission has already set aside $500,000.00 as a starter and has assured both boards that the remainder would be forthcoming. The federal funds are not to be repaid by the boards.

Since February 1961 when this proposal was first announced, both boards have continued to study the needs and advantages of carrying out the plan, and are at present working together to arrive at the best possible plan for the construction of a new hospital. Board mem-bers invite the public to express their views and would apppreciate any constructive criticism or sug-gestion that might be offered. Conferences have been held with Conferences have been near portion the Hospital Division of the Florida Development Commission in Tallahassee, and upon the advice of Autha Forehand, director of that division, application has been made available through the Hill-Burton Act and are allocated annually by Congress. The FDC is in charge of dispensing the funds in accordance with county needs, using a formula of so many beds per thousand population. Western Palm Beach County falls in the 4-beds-per-

County falls in the 4-beds-per-thousand category.

On this basis, Forehand has recommended to board representa-tives that a hospital be built some where between the two major communities with core facilities to accommodate up to 175 beds, and with a minimum unit of 100 beds to be built initially.

This recommendation is based upon recent FDC studies of the existing hospital facilities and a knowledge and understanding of the area needs and anticipated growth. The 100-bed unit under modern hospital design would ex-pand in emergencies to accommodate up to 130 patients, and the 175-bed core facilities will permit economical expansion to meet future area demands.

As additional facts are known, they will be presented to the public for their consideration.

Hospital Board members are as follows: Southwestern — Herman Close, Chairman, C. A. Thomas, Robert Roadman, Richard A. Post-on, Lee Berryhill, Robert Lanier, and Mrs. Irvin Zumpf; Northwest-ern—Floyd Erickson, Chairman, Milton Douglas, Leonard Dobrow, Dick Parrish and Mrs. A. M. Okie.
